Teaching Evaluations

The following are teaching evaluations for three undergraduate courses in which I led weekly 1.5-hour discussion or project sections, each with 20–25 students. All evaluations are included without omission.

Social Psychology (Autumn 2023)

Department: Psychology, Comparative Human Development

Instructor: Yuan Chang Leong

Please include the name of the TA/CA/Intern you are evaluating. What aspects of the TA's teaching contributed most to your learning? What could the TA modify to help you learn more? Please include any additional feedback for the TA/CA/Intern.

- Hayoung Song – created open, non-judgmental environment in discussion where we could share our opinions on the articles & lecture content; available outside of class via email
- Hayoung Song, She was top notch! Super dedicated and super available to help. She conducted the Friday sessions so well, with just the right mix of authority and humor/charm!
- hayoung was so sweet and kind!!!!
- Hayoung Song was a great TA! She was very engaging and thoughtful
- Hayoung Song! I usually dread discussions but I loved these so much I couldn't believe it. Such a nice environment, I looooooved the small group styles and the presentations as well. I also really appreciated how much advance-notice and flexibility we got to make up for the discussion section that she had to cancel, thank you!
- discussion with Hayoung helped better understand the articles that focused on the concepts we had learned during the week in lecture
- I had Hayoung. She was a great TA who was knowledgeable and passionate about the class.

Psychological Research Methods (Autumn 2021)

Department: Psychology

Instructor: Kerry LeDoux

What aspects of the TA's teaching contributed most to your learning?

- Hayoung was obviously very knowledgeable. She was able to answer any questions we had about conducting our research and also gave us some really good suggestions when we needed them
- Hayoung gave very detailed comments on our research proposals and was instrumental in helping my group develop our projects!

- Hayoung was really helpful as we were crafting our naturalistic observation and experimental research proposals – gave a lot of great feedback.

Cognitive Psychology (Spring 2021)

Department: Psychology, Neuroscience

Instructor: Monica Rosenberg

Please include the name of the TA/CA/Intern you are evaluating. What aspects of the TA's teaching contributed most to your learning? What could the TA modify to help you learn more? Please include any additional feedback for the TA/CA/Intern.

- Hayoung Song was my TA. She was very good at giving feedback on discussion posts and doing lectures during the weekly discussion section.
- Hayoung Song. Structured discussion sections well, was knowledgeable and approachable.
- Hayoung Song was a great TA! Her feedback on our work was always instructive and direct. She also did a nice job leading discussions.
- Hayoung Song. Asked really good discussion questions when discussion lulled.
- Hayoung led each week's discussion very effectively by explaining the broader topics covered by the readings to make sure that we understood them correctly. She also always brought a warm and positive environment and made me feel a lot more comfortable in sharing my ideas and engaging in discussion with my classmates.

* I served as a teaching assistant for two additional undergraduate courses: Biological Psychology (Instructor: Jai Yu, Department: Psychology, Biological Sciences, Comparative Human Development, Neuroscience) and Sensation and Perception (Instructor: Kerry LeDoux, Department: Psychology, Neuroscience). As these courses did not include individual discussion sections, teaching assistant evaluations were received as a group.
